

M. E. Church, New London, Ohio.

New London, Ohio.

March 21st, 1913

Still Hello I send I wonder how

Post Card

you are to day. I wish you were here.
We have had a nasty day here to day. The worst wind most a storm, I don't know where down town this morning. It was 1913 blew us away. Rained hard last night. Cloudy now & getting cold. Wonder how the weather is out there. Hope it is nice. Hope you are well, & not starving to death. Bevie & I are going to a concert - in the hall to night. I have lots of fun with all the girls.
Winnie slept with me last night, - made a pretty good B.F. - Chas took me for a long ride here last night. The country around is rolling & reminds me of our own.
Chas is invoicing to day. Love Bevie & I

Mr J. R. Jensen.

West Union,

Iowa.